New Military Moves in Asia a Possibility

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara returned today from a Honolulu conference with "a number of recommendations" for President Johnson on new action to strengthen Southeast Asia against Communist pressures.

Landing at Andrews Air Force Base, Rusk told newsmen: "We brought back a number of recommendations, as we usually do from these meetings."

He said "the commitment of the American nation, its people and its government," to protect Southeast Asia against Red aggression "are well-known."

Then he added: "The problem is to make sure the other side fully understands that we mean what we say."

Rusk and McNamara were scheduled to see Johnson late in the day after the President's return from a speaking trip to New England.

McNamara was asked whether there are any plans for expanding the Vietnamese war into North Viet Nam. He declared that "no plans have been recommended to the President for approval and none has been approved."

This stopped short of denying that plans have been made by military experts, but it was in line with Johnson's statement Tuesday that he was not personally aware of any plans.

Aides traveling with Rusk and McNamara said much of the planning in the two-day Honolulu strategy conference, which ended Tuesday night, was concerned with ways of strengthening the anti-Communist war effort in South Viet Nam and supporting more effectively the government of Premier Nguyen Khanh.

Officials returning with the two cabinet officers declined to say exactly what steps would be proposed to Johnson for

14 Witnesses Called in for Ridgeway

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has subpoenaed 14 witnesses for a hearing today which he hopes will result in removal of Eugene T. Ridgeway's name from the Democratic gubernatorial ballot.

The hearing is on a taxpayer's suit filed by Bennett in Pulaski Chancery Court. Bennett asked that Ridgeway be barred from the ballot because, in Bennett's opinion, he is not a qualified voter in Arkansas.

Bennett filed the suit Monday after the Arkansas Supreme Court ruled that, while Ridgeway cannot serve as governor because he is an ex-convict, Democratic Party officials had no right to take him off the ballot on Bennett's advice.

Ten of the subpoenaed witnesses are city officials at Newport where Ridgeway lived until he moved to Norfolk, Va., three years ago.

Bennett contends that Ridgeway is a resident of Virginia because he has paid poll taxes there in recent years. Ridgeway says he has also paid taxes, including the poll tax, in Newport and that he regards himself as a resident of Arkansas.

Technically Bennett is asking for a writ of prohibition to keep Leon Catlett, Democratic Party chairman, from placing Ridgeway's name on the ballot.

Ridgeway was not made a defendant in the case until Tuesday.

Ridgeway served almost two years of a five-year prison sentence assessed after he pleaded guilty to an embezzlement charge in 1955. He was accused of misusing funds he collected as a delinquent tax collector for Jackson County.

They are the whipping of convicts at the state prison and the suggestion that condemned men be worked in the fields.

Joe Hubbard of Russellville, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, asked permission to talk with Prison Supt. Dan Stephens about corporal punishment of prisoners.

Hubbard asked also to see the strap used, to see the record of whippings, and to see and interview inmates who had been worked in the fields.

J. D. Wood of Cabot, commission chairman, said the group probably would take up the matters, if all members consented.

Reports of prisoner whippings originated at Albuquerque, N. M., where Donald G. Garrison, an Arkansas prison escapee, was arrested.

Garrison claimed to have been beaten with a five-foot whip weighing three pounds. Stephens said Garrison had never been whipped.

He said, however, that prisoners were hit a maximum of 10 times with "a strap no bigger than the one my daddy used to whip me with."

10,000 Men Are in S. Viet Nam

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—The Army currently has 10,000 men deployed in South Viet Nam, Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes said today.

This was the first time an official figure on the major element of the U.S. military manpower had been given.

Ailes announced the total in an address prepared for commencement exercises at the U.S. Military Academy.

In Washington, the Pentagon said the over-all total of U.S. forces in South Viet Nam is about 15,500 — 1,000 below last fall's peak—but did not officially detail the totals for each branch of service.

LBJ Affirms This Nation Seeks Peace

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—President Johnson said today this action seeks peace in the world, "but common sense dictates that peaceful purposes must be supported by purposeful power."

He emphasized the peace theme in prepared speeches both for workers in a Polarix submarine shipyard here and for graduates of the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.

This nation is stronger militarily "than any adversary or combination of adversaries," Johnson told the Coast Guardsmen, but added:

"The staggering strength is not to destroy but to save, not to put an end to conflict."

He predicted U.S. strength will continue to grow more rapidly than the might of others, and said "our adversaries, convinced that direct attack would be aimless, now resort to terror, subversion and guerrilla war fare."

The President said much the same to employees of the General Dynamics Corp. Electric Boat Division, in connection with laying the keel for another nuclear submarine.

"There are those who oppose freedom and security," Johnson said. "They seek by fear and subversion to thwart man's hopes for peace. If they do not understand our motives for peace, we must be sure they do not misunderstand our means of power."

"The nuclear powered submarine you are building here are indispensable to that strength."

But Johnson said the nation's efforts must not be confined to the production of new weapons, "for a nation with unbeatable military power can still be toppled if it does not preserve its power." He added:

"Only an America which practices equal rights and social justice at home will be heard as it proclaims those ideals abroad."

"Only an America which has fully educated its people can remain strong."

"Only an America that cares for its sick offers a helping hand to its poor and compassion to its old only this kind of America can win the respect of those whose destiny is bound up with ours."

Goldwater Loses Bids in 2 States

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller were locked in a tight battle for California's 86 Republican presidential nominating delegates Tuesday night. But Goldwater lost bids for support in two other state primary elections.

In South Dakota, Republican voters chose a 14-vote uncommitted slate over one pledged to Goldwater, although there were at least six votes for the senator on the uncommitted group.

In New York, Goldwater candidates who had challenged Rockefeller on his home grounds in 11 district delegate contests had either lost or were trailing, partial returns showed. Most of the 82 district delegates elected were favorable to Rockefeller.

Goldwater claimed victory in California shortly after the Columbia Broadcasting System predicted he would win 53 per cent of the vote. CBS later scaled this down to 51 per cent, a figure which the National Broadcasting Co. also predicted for Goldwater.

Both projections were based on votes from a relatively small number of previously selected precincts.

The Associated Press tabulation of votes showed the lead swinging back and forth between the senator and the governor, with Rockefeller leading in the latest returns.

The vote with 21,562 of 32,861 precincts reporting was 495,781 for Goldwater to 500,829 for Rockefeller.

Sweet Home to Hold Revival

The Rev. A.C. Kirby of Hope will begin a revival meeting at Sweet Home Church, three miles east of Blevins on Highway 24 on Sunday, June 7. The meeting will continue throughout the week. Services will be held each night at 7:45 o'clock, according to Dorothy Wade, Church Clerk.

Bennett Fails to See Parallel

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett failed to see a parallel Tuesday between the E. T. Ridgeway case and a 1962 Conway County voting case.

Bennett ruled Ridgeway out of the race for governor because Ridgeway lived, worked, registered and voted in Virginia.

Justice of the Peace Leon Brents of Conway County cited a case in which three Royal Oak, Mich., residents voted in Conway County and in Michigan in the 1962 general election.

Brents asked Bennett to rule on the voting case. Bennett said the cases were not the same.

Besides, Bennett said, the voting case is in the courts and he never rules on cases that are in the courts.

Students in Korea Battle With Police

By C. S. CHIN

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—About 20,000 students and citizens demanding that President Chung Hee Park resign fought a bloody battle with police to day and on into the night. His shaken regime proclaimed martial law.

Street fighting swirled around the capitol and on the approaches to the presidential palace in a day of wild disorder. Outbreaks were reported in other South Korean cities.

The decree putting the nation under martial law was announced after Park who came to power four years ago on the heels of another student uprising, called the National Security Council into urgent session.

Also summoned were the representatives of the United States, which bankrolls this land of poverty menaced by communism. They were U.S. Ambassador Samuel D. Berger and Gen. Hamilton H. Howze, the U.S. and U.N. commander in Korea.

So perilous were the streets, where students were seizing army trucks, battering at the capitol's gates and raining stones on police, that Berger and Howze flew to the conference in a helicopter.

Then as the fighting sputtered on after nightfall, the deputy information minister Lo Sukchan, announced the emergency martial law decree giving the army power to crush the demonstrations and drive people from Seoul's teeming streets.

3 Killed, 47 Injured in Bus Accident

By GURNEE, Ill. (AP)

Three women were killed and 47 other persons injured Tuesday when a chartered bus struck a bridge and overturned on a rain-slick highway.

Sheriff Charles E. Larson said a mechanical failure on the bus may have caused the accident on U.S. 41, about 40 miles north of Chicago. The bus was en route to Milwaukee, Wis.

Larson said several passengers told him the driver, Clarence Lorch, stopped the bus and "got out with a wrench and monkey around with a back wheel" a few miles before the accident. Lorch, who was 60 on Tuesday, was listed in critical condition at a hospital in near-by Waukegan. He was not questioned.

Four women passengers were described in critical condition. The 49 passengers, all women, were returning to Milwaukee from a tour of the Avon Products, Inc., cosmetics plant in Morton Grove, a suburb of Chicago.

Although the tour was privately sponsored, most of the women are members of the Christian Mothers Society at St. Paul Roman Catholic church in Milwaukee.

The dead were identified as Angela Santarelli and Stella Cieski, both of Milwaukee; and Jean Posto of South Milwaukee.

Church Group to Study Merger Plan

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Church voted Tuesday to follow the lead of its southern counterpart and study a possible merger.

The Little Rock Conference, representing Methodist churches in south Arkansas, voted last week in Hot Springs to study a possible merger with the North Arkansas Conference.

Both groups set up a merger study committee, to be named by Bishop Kenneth Pope.

That was the highlight of action at the conference, which ends Wednesday night with the announcement of new pastoral appointments.

The conference approved a $150,000 for construction of a Methodist Headquarters Building at Little Rock, which would be jointly owned by both conferences. The Little Rock Conference approved funds for the building last week.

Dr. Cecil R. Culver, executive secretary of the Arkansas Area Council of the Methodist Church, said North Arkansas Conference membership increased 854 in the past year to a total of 98,246. There are 182,719 Methodists on church rolls in Arkansas.

Tribute Paid to American War Dead

"We pay tribute to these patriots who fell so our nation might stand as a living symbol of free government to all the world," said American Legion Department Adjutant Talbot Field, Jr. at the Memorial Day ceremonies held Sunday on the courthouse lawn by the memorial marker. The American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and their auxiliaries participated in the tribute to those killed in action during World War II.

The Legion Auxiliary Chaplain, Mrs. Ben Edmiston, voiced the opening prayer. Field expressed the thoughts of all present when he said, "We know the destinies of these men. We know how they fell. We, the living, know well and deeply our obligations to the dead."

"Miss Poppy" Kitty Reeves, placed a poppy covered cross made by the junior members of the Legion Auxiliary at the marker site, and VFW Auxiliary President, Mrs. James Laughard, laid a floral wreath at the location. Joey Keesey played "Taps" for the benediction.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market staged a technical snapback early this afternoon in light trading.

Gains of key stocks numbered losers and ran from fractions to about a point.

The list met support near a level from which it rebounded in late April. After two days of decline, traders picked up stock at relatively cheap prices.

Conspicuous on the upside were airlines, which have been under severe long-term profit taking.

Some of the higher-priced, more volatile issues in the office equipment or photography gained 2 to 5 points.

The trend was slightly higher among rails, motors, tobaccos, chemicals, retailers, electronics and aerospace issues.

Trading was so dull, however, that first-hour volume was below a million shares for the first time in weeks.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .5 at 65.0 with industrials up .6, rails up .5 and utilities up .2.

Texas Gulf Sulphur recouped more than a point of recent decline.

Xerox rose .5, Polaroid 3, Control Data more than 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.24 at 815.02.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange worked generally lower.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.

Narrow Win Gives Him Top GOP Position

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater grabbed a commanding lead for the GOP presidential nomination today with a stunning California primary victory.

Confounding the pollsters who had made him the underdog, the Arizona senator came from behind in the vote count to nose out New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the state's 86 Republican presidential nominating votes.

Goldwater's victory had been forecast by the electronic projections of the television networks. But it took all night tabulations of the actual votes to establish him firmly as the winner.

Rockefeller carried most of the California counties in what was a liberal vs. conservative battle.

Southern California returns, chiefly from Los Angeles, gave Goldwater his first victory in a major contested primary after losses in New Hampshire and Oregon. This put him near the 655 delegate vote votes required the nomination.

The Associated Press tabulation of returns from 31,316 of the state's 31,861 precincts showed Goldwater 1,023,330, Rockefeller 985,708.

Goldwater was getting 50.9 per cent of the vote. Most of the network projections had ranged around 51 per cent, a figure on which CBS settled

Suit Held to Be Election Contest

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that a hospital bond election suit in Cleveland County is a true election contest action and cannot be tried in chancery court.

The ruling apparently had the effect of dismissing the suit since the time for contesting the election in circuit court, which does have jurisdiction, has expired.

The election involved a bond issue and a four mill tax to finance expansion of the county hospital and construction of a county nursing home at Rison.

Plaintiffs in the suit contend that certification of the 426-308 favorable vote for the bond issue was illegal because residents of White Oak and Whiteville townships did not get a chance to vote. If they had voted, the suit alleged, enough of them would have voted against achieving the purpose Rusk stated of making Communist North Viet Nam, Red China and the Soviet Union aware of U.S. determination not to let Southeast Asia fall to Red conquest.

McNamara flew from Washington to Hawaii last Sunday.

Rusk went there from India where he served last week as President Johnson's special representative at funeral services for Indian Prime Minister Nehru. He said his time in India had been a "sad but deeply moving experience." He expressed admiration for the manner in which the new Indian leadership had acted to fill the gap created by Nehru's death.

U.S. officials indicated Tuesday night in Honolulu that military action might be taken against Communist North Viet Nam if it and Red China continue backing rebellions in South Viet Nam and Laos. But they said Rusk and McNamara so far have not proposed plans "to enlarge the war to the north" in Viet Nam or to send troops into Thailand.

As the Honolulu session ended, newsmen there were told no change was planned in the role of U.S. forces in South Viet Nam—a role which has been described as advisory and training rather than front-line combat.

Actual decisions on what is to be done in the trouble area are up to Johnson.

Administration informants said they rather doubted that Rusk and McNamara would press for any particular combination of actions. These officials thought they would lay alternative possibilities before the President together with assessments of the probable results which might be obtained according to what the President chose to do.

Johnson was represented as being determined to do whatever is necessary to secure "the future of Southeast Asia as a whole"—a phrase he used at his news conference Tuesday.

At the same time he was reported anxious to avoid any unnecessary risks or troop commitments. This suggested that what he is looking for at this stage is some use of U.S. power in the area to demonstrate to the Communists that he is determined to meet any challenge they present in order to protect non-Communist regions and at the same time to stabilize peace in Southeast Asia.

Johnson stressed the peace theme in a statement to his news conference saying at one point, "It is others who make war, and we who seek peace."

The atmosphere of urgency which enveloped the Laos and Vietnamese problems last week as the Communists pressed an with evidence that the Red drive has come to a halt. But no one in Washington knew whether this was only a temporary lull.

On another aspect of the Southeast Asian crisis, Johnson announced that he has instructed Undersecretary of State George W. Ball to confer with French President Charles de Gaulle on Friday in Paris.

It was learned that Southeast Asian problems, over which Johnson and De Gaulle disagree, will be the chief subject of the meeting as far as Ball is concerned. Johnson presumably hopes to get some closer support from De Gaulle for a tougher stirred up here by the question of whether the U.S. government has planned or made preparations for carrying the war to North Viet Nam.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., said in a broadcast interview Sunday that "the Johnson administration's position is to move north and we are prepared to move north."

At the President's news conference he was asked whether it was true that the United States was "preparing to move the Viet Nam war into the north." Johnson first replied that Laird was not speaking for the administration.

When the question was pressed, the President finally said: "I know of no plans that have been made to that effect."

Narrow Win

after having predicted generally that he would win with 53 per cent.

Obviously to a shortlived bomb scare, Goldwater took a transcontinental nap as he flew from Los Angeles to Washington. Police hustled a passenger off Goldwater's jet airliner in Los Angeles and made him unpack a stachel. When no bombs or guns were found in it, airline officials let him reboard.

In high good humor, Goldwater joked with reporters on his arrival in Washington.

Alluding to the long dispute between Arizona and California over the waters of the Colorado River, the Arizona senator cracked: "I have a different attitude toward Californians now. They can have all the water we have."

Goldwater previously had called his California victory a "giant step" toward the presidential nomination.

By JACK BEL L

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller rode a tide of northern California votes into a narrow lead Tuesday night over Sen. Barry Goldwater in a see-saw GOP presidential primary battle.

Goldwater, top man in delegate strength in the contest for the party nomination, already had claimed victory on the basis of electronic projections of the vote.

CBS and ABC had pronounced Goldwater the winner. NBC called him the "apparent" winner.

But Rockefeller declined to concede and as the vote tabulations mounted, he and his opponent exchanged the lead several times.

With more than 65 per cent of the state's polling places accounted for, The Associated Press totals from 21,852 of the 32,861 precincts showed:

Rockefeller 514,868; Goldwater 506,064.

Without listing the number of precincts, NBC gave these totals: Goldwater 672,978; Rockefeller 840,745.

Appearing on television, Rockefeller commented:

"The show isn't over yet."

Goldwater, whose bid for the nomination to oppose President Johnson in November would be given a tremendous boost by acquiring California's backing, told a Los Angeles news conference that his was "a victory for the mainstream of Republican thinking."

Whatever the final outcome, Goldwater appeared to have escaped any major damage to his cause in crucial California. Even if he lost in the ultimate count-down, it would be by such a narrow margin that it could not be said his conservative views had been repudiated.

If he won, the result would be depicted as a triumph over not only Rockefeller but over other potential contenders for the nomination such as Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. Lodge's backers had urged his supporters to vote for Rockefeller.

"DEAR ABBY"

STAY AS SWEET AS YOU ARE

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am 18 and I want to ask you a serious question. Do ANY boys like nice, sweet, old-fashioned girls? If you don't give them what they want, they think you don't like them and go find someone who will. This er in order to stop Goldwater.

NBC's Electronic Vote Analysis center noted that Rockefeller ran strong in the San Francisco Bay area, farm and mountain areas, and that Goldwater did not come up to expectations in San Diego County.

The EVA center report spotted a trend to Rockefeller among minority groups. First returns from San Francisco's Chinatown, for instance, favored the governor 5 to 1. A similar swing was evident among Italian-Americans.

The NBC analysis emphasized Goldwater's strength in the state's high population centers. Rockefeller was favored in the north—considered more sophisticated and more liberal than the south—and that's the way the vote went. But 60 per cent of the population lives in the south.

Little Modoc County, a bellwether in 25 state elections, was giving Goldwater a plurality of better than 54 per cent. The northeastern county has only 1,491 registered voters.

CBS, shortly after the polls closed, projected a Goldwater sweep on votes for 42 "model" precincts. With 22 per cent of the vote in, ABC's projection also labbed him as the winner. Even so, Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, Rockefeller's state campaign chairman, said it was still a cliffhanger, and "I think we'll wait a little longer" before any conceding.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland, who headed Goldwater's forces, called on Republicans to unify and said he expected support from most of Rockefeller's followers.

The election capped a bitter campaign. Rockefeller staked his California chances on the Republicans' middle-of-the-road voting patter, and banged away at Goldwater's political positions as extremist.

Goldwater termed Rockefeller a stand-in for all the other undeclared Republican contenders for the nomination and complained that the New York governor misrepresented his views.

Goldwater led the early polls, then sagged after President John F. Kennedy's assassination. Concentrating his campaign in Southern California in the closing days, he said on Memorial Day: "In the last two days I think the tide in this state has definitely turned toward me."

Engineer's Day

The University of Arkansas' College of Engineering first celebrated Engineer's Day in 1909 in honor of St. Patrick, who, according to tradition, was an engineer.

guy I went with was real nice at first, then he started getting "fresh." He said if I liked him I'd go along with his ideas. I really liked him, but I couldn't explain why I wouldn't give in without sounding stupid or juvenile. He said I was too "nice" for him, and he left. Now I realize how much I liked him. How can I get him back?

DEE
Dear Dee: Plenty of boys still like "nice, sweet, old-fashioned" girls. (That's the kind they look for when they have marriage in mind). If you have to define your moral standards with a debate, you're in the wrong company. Forget this boy. But don't be surprised if he turns up after he's grown up, and tells you that you were right, and he'd like to have another chance — this time with YOUR rules.

Dear Abby: My husband has been dead for 32 years. I have continued to call myself Mrs. John Smith. A friend of mine recently pointed out to me that I was breaching etiquette; that since there is no longer a John SMITH, neither is there a MRS. JOHN SMITH, and I should be calling myself MRS. Geraldine Smith. please set me straight. MRS. GERALDINE OR MRS. JOHN?

Dear Mrs. John Smith: Your friend is the one who needs to be "set straight." When you took John's name, you took it for as long as YOU lived (unless you took another husband), not for as long as HE lived.

Dear Abby: Since reading in your column that a woman changed dentists because she didn't like the canned music he used in his office, I should like to express myself on that subject. I quit TWO dentists on this account. But worse yet is being forced to listen to canned music in a garage. I sat there waiting for my car to be repaired, while the mechanic waved wrenches and screw drivers around in the air as he sang and skipped and danced all around the car as though he were in a hypnotic state. He stood on his toes, leaped into the air and twisted his body. His boss said he was a good mechanic, and if the music were turned off, every mechanic in the place would walk out. At six dollars an hour I didn't bring my car in there to be entertained. When I want to see a ballet, I'll buy a ticket. There should be a law against such nonsense in a place of business.

Phils in Win to Extend League Lead

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gene Mauch reached into his bag for a Cookie and came up with a Cracker-Jack.

Sniffing a pennant and looking for the big trade that might bring one, the Philadelphia Phillies decided to display some of their excess talent week in the hopes of drumming some business in the National League market place.

Manager Mauch looked down his bench and there, residing in a quiet corner, was utility infielder Cookie Rojas, a career .221 hitter. With an average like that, you've got to be considered excess. So Mauch tapped Cookie to take over for Tony Taylor at second base for a couple of games.

That was a week ago and Taylor hasn't started a game since. Rojas has 14 hits in 21 at bats since taking over for a .667 batting average. Of course that's much more than his season's average which is only .548 on 17 for 31.

Rojas continued his hot streak with two hits against the Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday night as Philadelphia maintained its National League lead with a 4-3 victory.

Cookie scored the Phillies' first run when he doubled, stole third and came in on Richie Allen's long fly. After Ken McMullen's two-run homer had tied it at 3-3 in the top of the seventh, Rojas opened the Phillie half with a single.

Allen's single and an intentional walk loaded the bases and Cookie trotted home with the winning run when Ron Peranowski walked Wes Covington.

The victory, coupled with San Francisco's 3-1 loss to Pittsburgh, extended the Phillies' league lead to 1½ games. In other NL games, Cincinnati rallied to beat Warren Spahn and Milwaukee 7-5. New York came from behind and whipped Houston 7-4 and Chicago downed St. Louis 5-2.

In the American League, Baltimore blanked Kansas City 4-0 take over first place from Chicago which lost to Cleveland 3-2. Minnesota defeated New York 6-2. Los Angeles topped Boston 1-0 and Detroit and Washington were rained out.

Brittenuum Redshirted by Broyles

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—University of Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles announced Monday night that quarterback Jon Brittenuum, star of last year's Texas game, will be red-shirted this year.

Broyles made the announcement at a meeting of the Monro County quarterback club in Brinkley. Brittenuum's home town.

He granted that the news was not welcome, but he added, "I think you'll be grateful in 1966." Brittenuum was a natural sophomore last year. When he comes off the red-shirt list, he'll have two seasons of eligibility.

Brittenuum was a standout in the 1963 spring practice. He played every offensive down against Texas last year. He was hurt in the Tulsa game and never gained his form.

Broyles has two senior quarterbacks—Bill Gray and Freddy Marshall—read for this year. He said Ronnie South of Russellville, a kicking specialist, will be the No. 3 quarterback. South will be a sophomore.

"We want him (South) to gain some experience playing at quarterback so that he will not come back in 1965 with just one man (Brittenuum) who never played in a varsity game."

Conviction of Rape Is Confirmed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court affirmed today Luther Bailey's second rape conviction and death sentence.

Bailey, a Negro of Woodson, was retried Jan. 29, 1962, after the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals overturned his conviction because members of his race had been excluded from juries in Pulaski Circuit Court.

Bailey was convicted of raping a 49-year-old white woman in Little Rock in 1958.

On appeal of the second conviction, Bailey's lawyers argued that Negroes had received limited consideration in the selection of the jury panel.

But Chief Justice Carleton Harris said no basis had been established in the trial record for a discrimination plea. He said the record showed no examination of jury commissioners or members of the jury panel, and there was no motion to quash the jury.

The court also overruled Bailey's contention that the conviction should be thrown out because his second trial was not held within the time set by the appeals court.

The Supreme Court handed down 14 opinions and heard oral arguments in two cases, then adjourned for the summer recess.

Associate Justice Sam Robinson was absent from today's session. He was injured last week at his ranch when he was thrown from a horse. He is in a Little Rock hospital recuperating from a fractured left hip.

Goldwater Is Sounding Confident

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the tangled tale of the Republican presidential primaries, reaching their climax today in California, Sen. Barry Goldwater sounds more confident than ever.

The night before the New Hampshire primary last March the Arizona senator was so cocky about success he said he "had it made." Later his campaign manager said this was a boner.

The man who didn't even admit he was running—Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam—won and Goldwater and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, both of whom campaigned hard in the state, finished second and third.

Last week, a few days before today's showdown in California, Goldwater, with some of the cockiness gone, said "I think we're winning this campaign." What happened between New Hampshire and California got tangled, indeed.

The next big shocker after New Hampshire was the Oregon primary where the still-silent Lodge's name was entered. Pollsters seemed confident Lodge would win again against Goldwater and Rockefeller, both of whom campaigned there.

Goldwater didn't do much campaigning. It was as if he had taken the pollsters at their word. It was Rockefeller who campaigned although by this time his chances looked dim. People wondered if he was running for exercise.

But—Rockefeller won. Lodge finished second, and Goldwater third. This boosted the governor's chances against the senator in California where it would be strictly between both of them since Lodge wasn't entered there.

It was a blow to Goldwater and, to make it tougher for him, the Lodge supporters decided to back Rockefeller in California against Goldwater who represents the conservative right wing of the party. Lodge and Rockefeller are moderates.

The Lodge people weren't enamored of Rockefeller. But if Rockefeller could beat Goldwater the latter's chances of winning the Republican nomination at the convention next month might be ruined, or so they thought. By his own words, Goldwater doesn't have a chance for the nomination next month unless he wins today.

Earlier this year, long before the primaries began, he was asked: Could he win the nomination without winning in California with its 86 convention delegates to add to those he already had, perhaps 500? He said "No. I can't win the nomination without California. No one could."

Monday night he said: "We are going to win tomorrow—I've never been so confident."

could hope.

With Goldwater out of the way at the convention, Lodge then might have a better chance since there was and is a lot of skepticism that Rockefeller, even with a win in California, can get the nomination.

In the midst of all this former President Dwight D. Eisenhower—who had refused to express a preference among candidates and said he wouldn't try to stop any of them or dictate the nominee—issued a statement.

He listed the "principles and traditions" he felt the Republican candidate in November's election should hold. Some of the principles he mentioned did not fit Goldwater too well.

Immediately there was a burst of interpretation across the country that Eisenhower, despite his previous insistence that he wouldn't butt in, had coolly tried to cut Goldwater's throat.

If true, it would have been a strange performance for the ex-president. It would seem that if he thought, for the good of the party and the country that Goldwater should be washed out, he would at least have said so forthrightly.

The statement and the interpretations cheered the Rockefeller forces and the Goldwater people seemed to be trying to ignore any implication that Eisenhower was shooting at Goldwater. The senator said Eisenhower's remarks were "most welcome."

But then Monday, after a week of silence since his statement, Eisenhower was asked by newsmen how he thought Goldwater felt about his statement. The former president said, "You people read Goldwater out of the party, I didn't."

This seemed to put everything back where it was before Eisenhower said anything but at least the Rockefeller people had had a week to make use of it.

Special Vote at Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Pine Bluff Mayor Office Lites said Monday night that he had set July 7 for a special election on the city manager form of government.

The City Council passed a resolution in January asking Lites to set a date for the election, but Lites waited until the U.S. Supreme Court upheld an annexation.

He said residents of the annexed area, 7.5 square miles, would be able to vote in the election.

They Were Parted But Not for Long

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Thomas Hamner and his 4-year-old mixed breed dog named Spot were parted recently, but not for long.

Hamner, serving a term for drunkenness, told County Judge Arch Campbell Sunday that his dog would be "put away" before Hamner could get out of jail.

The dog was with Hamner when he was arrested and the pair went in different directions—Hamner to jail and Spot to the pound.

Campbell, a dog lover, paid $5 to release Spot and had the dog sent to the county farm to be with Hamner for the rest of his stay.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's goodbye Hollywood, for Richard Boone.

The moving vans have pulled up before his westside home, his cars have been shipped, and next Monday he shifts to his new residence on the island of Oahu, Hawaii.

After 4 years as a Hollywood actor, including service in three television series, Boone is moving his wife and 10-year-old son to the islands. That doesn't mean he's relegating himself to a life of ease among the palms and pineapples.

"I am not capable of retiring," he explained. "I'm merely shifting my base of operations to a place that is only 4½ hours away from Hollywood by jet. I expect to be here often, if producers call me, and I hope they do."

He also hopes to be working in the islands. He has an ambitious plan in mind.

"I think I've learned the production side of our business pretty well—I'd be pretty stupid if I hadn't," he said. "I want to establish a film studio in Hawaii with the purpose of producing features and television series and providing a base for other movie companies that come to Hawaii for locations."

"The idea would be to build two sound stages—one for shooting and one where sets would be prepared—plus an office complex. It would have to be on Oahu because of transportation. Also, the film lab is there, and the four television stations can provide tape and other facilities."

"The studio would be a boon for film locations. It would give companies cover sets to use in case of bad weather; within two hours they could be shooting indoors. Time lost by weather can be murder on a budget."

if he hadn't been arrested, he wouldn't have lost the dog," Campbell said.
